"Your home away from home while Hunting"

It begins with the land...

Hunting is a dynamic interaction with the land and it's bounty. The best hunts will only happen on the best land which is found in abundance at Top Gun. Set in a gently rolling topography thoughtfully planted for optimum hunting, corn, milo, treebelts, food plots, switch-grass and bottom lands create the perfect haven for pheasants. Sloughs and permanent wetlands meander through premier waterfowl country and weave through the picturesque beauty of unspoiled dakota farm country.

Located in the legendary "Pheasant Belt" of South Dakota, Top Gun offers quantity, 3200 acres total with over 2300 acres in preserve, and more importantly quality. The tough wily Ringneck pheasant is naturally abundant in Top Gun country. This native bird population is carefully augmented throughout the season with elected stock to assure high bird densities.

The main lodge at Top Gun is a 6,000 square foot hunters haven.

A good hunt builds good hunger, and Top Gun's kitchen supplies what you want to plentitude: hearty, home cooked farm country meals in a casual atmosphere. The spacious dining area off the full kitchen can seat up to thirty.
